Biographical Note

Anne D. Williams, Professor Emerita of Economics at Bates College in Lewiston, Maine, is a preeminent jigsaw puzzle historian and collector.

Williams has conducted decades of research and written numerous publications on jigsaw puzzle history; she has also appeared on many national television programs and in local news features on puzzles. Williams joined the Association of Game and Puzzle Collectors (AGPC) as a Charter Member, and she received the 2007 AGPC Spilsbury Award as an acknowledgment of her contributions to the AGPC and for being the “world’s foremost expert on jigsaw puzzles.” Williams’ books include Jigsaw Puzzles: An Illustrated History and Price Guide (1990) and The Jigsaw Puzzle: Piecing Together a History (2004).

Collection Scope and Content Note

The Anne D. Williams papers contain decades of carefully filed and annotated research materials (including notes, reference, correspondence, photographs, and more) on various companies, independent puzzle-makers, puzzle collectors, and related people/topics. Information on puzzle companies in this collection dates back to the late 18th century and continues through 2023. Additional scope and content information can be found in the “Contents List” section of this finding aid.

The Anne D. Williams papers are arranged in two series with one series further divided into three subseries. The materials are housed in 53 archival document boxes, one oversized document box, and one oversized folder.

Related Materials

In 2014, The Strong acquired more than 7,000 jigsaw puzzles from Anne D. Williams, including examples from nearly all American and European puzzle-makers from the 18th century to the present.

The Brian Sutton-Smith Library and Archives of Play houses hundreds of jigsaw puzzle company trade catalogs and fliers within its library stacks, the majority of which were donated to the research library by Anne D. Williams in 2011 and 2013. The archive also holds the Anne D. Williams collection of jigsaw puzzle videos, 1983-2011.

System of Arrangement

Series I: Research and reference files, 1789-2023

 Subseries A: Puzzle-makers and collectors, 1789-2023

 Subseries B: Museum/Exhibits, 1980-2023

 Subseries C: Topics, 1869-2017

Series II: Audio recordings, 1986-2005

Contents List

Series I: Research and reference files, 1789-2023

Scope and Content Note: This series houses research and reference files created and maintained by Williams. Materials include original or photocopied articles, advertisements, book chapters, and other publications; company trade sheets or catalog pages; notes recorded during research visits to libraries, archives, and museums; genealogical information; correspondence (both traditional and electronic), letters, memos, and greeting cards; transcriptions of oral history interviews; photographs; printouts of websites; and other documentation.

File folders were originally labeled by Williams with last names of individuals or company names (and occasionally divided into specific topics) and filed in alphabetical order. Much of Williams' original order is retained here, with further descriptions of individual names, folder contents, and date ranges indicated in the folder title.

Subseries A: Puzzle makers and collectors, 1789-2023

Subseries Scope and Content Note: This subseries houses research and reference files created and maintained by Williams of puzzle makers and collectors.
