Biographical Note

Garth Parker is an American product designer with more than 30 years of experience in the toy and custom manufacturing industries.

Parker received degrees in Fine Art, Commercial Art, and Commercial Illustration during the 1980s. He worked for several companies, including Alcone Marketing Group, as a Creative Director. Parker developed both original and licensed premium design concepts for clients, such as Burger King, Yum Brands, Disney, and DecoPac. In 2012, he founded G Parker Concepts, a merchandise consultant firm. He has created thousands of toys and other premiums for companies worldwide.

Collection Scope and Content Note

The Garth Parker premium toy design papers contain materials from 1978 through 2014, with the bulk of the materials dated between 1995 and 2002. This collection holds both original and licensed character product sketches, designs, portfolios, presentations, product notebooks, and reference materials. Parker's designs portray merchandise created for fast-food restaurants, cereal brands, amusement parks, cake decorations, and more. Additional scope and content information can be found under the "Contents List" section of this finding aid.

The Garth Parker premium toy design papers are arranged into three series, one of which has been further divided into subseries. The physical materials are housed in 85 archival document boxes and 3 oversized flat folders. Digital files are accessible on-site at The Strong.

Related Materials

The Strong holds many Garth Parker-designed premiums within the museum's collections. The Brian Sutton-Smith Library and Archives of Play also houses reference books donated by Parker, which he used for designing both licensed character and original premium toys for fast-food restaurants, cereal brands, and more.

System of Arrangement

Series I: Garth Parker toy design concept sketches, 1978-2014

Subseries A: Physical pages

Subseries B: Digital files

Series II: Garth Parker leave-behind product notebooks/mailed portfolios, 1996-2005

Series III: Reference materials, 1983-2001

Contents List

Series I: Garth Parker toy design concept sketches, 1978-2014

Subseries A: Physical pages, 1978-2014

Scope and Content Note: This subseries contains loose pages which were previously housed in three-ring binders from Garth Parker. The pages were removed and rehoused in archival folders for preservation. While Parker did not label every binder, The Strong assigned each binder a number in order to better organize the papers. As a result, each folder contains an indicator such as “B001,” denoting which folders originated from the same binder. The binders, and their contents, have been arranged according to the original order in which they were received from Parker. Some pages show dates, while other designs have no date but can be estimated based on the portrayed licensed character or property.

In this box and folder listing, The Strong has indicated in brackets the key characters, products, and/or companies which appear in these design concepts sketches.

Series II: Garth Parker leave-behind product notebooks/mailler portfolios, 1996-2005

Scope and Content Note: This series holds spiral- or comb-bound portfolio books, to which Parker referred as “leave-behind books” or “product portfolios.” Volumes may depict one specific licensed character/property for a company or several product lines within the same book. Where multiple designs appear in one portfolio, the folder listing line indicates “combined” and shows the slash symbol to separate sections of the bound volume. The materials in this series have been arranged according to the original order in which they were received from Parker. Some portfolios list dates, while other designs have no date but can be estimated based on the portrayed licensed character or property.
